Honorable Clarence D. Long
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Congressman:

Thank you for your letter of 12 February concerning your luncheon date with the Czechoslovakian Ambassador on 13 February. When you telephoned me on the morning of 12 February, I was in the midst of the weekly meeting of the United States Intelligence Board, and I am sorry I was unable to talk with you personally.

I understand that Mr. John Warner, the CIA Legislative Liaison Officer, discussed this matter with you this morning, and I trust he was of help to you. We, of course, will be much interested to learn of anything significant that may have taken place during the luncheon date and hope you will advise us if this is the case.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at any time that we may be of some service to you.

Faithfully yours,

/s/

Honorable Joe Pool
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Pool:

Thank you for your letter of 28 January regarding [redacted]

[redacted] wrote to us on 30 December 1963 and enclosed a resume of his experience for our consideration. He is obviously a man of considerable ability as an executive and manager who would be an asset in a position commensurate with his substantial background. However, our recruitment activity is conducted primarily at the junior officer level and we do not often have openings in senior positions. [redacted] qualifications were carefully reviewed in light of our current openings but we did not locate any immediate opportunity commensurate with his stature and experience. He was advised of this result in a letter dated 20 January, a copy of which is enclosed for your information.

We have retained [redacted] file for reconsideration in the event an appropriate vacancy should develop. However, our present forecast of requirements based on a reduced personnel ceiling indicates that such a development is unlikely for some time.

Your letter on [redacted] behalf is appreciated and you may be sure that he will receive every consideration if a suitable position should become available.

Sincerely,

(Signed) JOHN A. McCONE

STAT

Since the receipt of your letter of 30 December and your resume, appropriate officials have completed a careful review of your qualifications and examined our personnel needs in an effort to locate a suitable vacancy for you. We regret to inform you, however, that we have not found an opening in which your background and experience might be effectively utilized at this time.

Your interest in this organization is appreciated and we shall advise you if an appropriate opportunity should develop for you at a later date.

Sincerely,

Signed
